The District of Columbia Comprehensive Merit Personnel Act (D.C. Law 2-139, Title I, Chapter 6, Subchapter 1, D.C. Official Code § 1-601.02) states that the Council of the District of Columbia declares that it is the purpose and policy of this act to assure that the District of Columbia Government shall have a modern flexible system of public personnel administration, which shall “provide for a positive policy of labor-management relations including collective bargaining between the District of Columbia and its employees”

The District of Columbia Comprehensive Merit Personnel Act (D.C. Law 2-139, Title 1, Chapter 6, Subchapter XVIII, (D.C. Official Code) Section 1-617.01) states [t]he District of Columbia Government finds and declares that an effective collective bargaining process is in the general public interest and will improve the morale of public employees and the quality of service to the public.

The District of Columbia Comprehensive Merit Personnel Act (D.C. Law 2-139, Title 1, Chapter 6, Subchapter XVIII, (D.C. Official Code) Section 1-617.01(b) provides for collective bargaining between the Mayor of the District of Columbia and labor organizations accorded exclusive recognition for employee representation for employees of the District of Columbia Government.

Pursuant to the District of Columbia Comprehensive Merit Personnel Act (D.C. Law 2-139, Title 1, Chapter 6, Subchapter XVIII, (D.C. Official Code) Section 1-617.10), various local unions or District Council 20 of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, AFL-CIO, (herein “AFSCME” or the “Union”) have been certified and/or recognized as the exclusive collective bargaining agent for employees of the District of Columbia Government (hereinafter the “District” or the “Employer”).

Accordingly, AFSCME and the District enter into this Agreement, which shall have as its purposes:

- (1) Promotion of a positive policy of labor-management relations between the District of Columbia Government and its employees;
- (2) Improvement of morale of employees in service to the District of Columbia Government;
- (3) Enhancement of the quality of public service to the citizens of the District of Columbia;
- (4) Creation of a government that works better; and
- (5) Promotion of the rights of District of Columbia Government employees to express their views without fear of retaliation.

AFSCME and the District of Columbia Government declare that each party has been afforded the opportunity to put forth all its non-compensation proposals and to bargain in good faith. Both parties agree that this Agreement is the result of their collective bargaining and each party affirms its contents without reservation. This Preamble is intended to provide the background and purpose of the Collective Bargaining Agreement. Alleged violations of the Preamble per se will not be cited as contract violations.

ARTICLE 1 RECOGNITION

The District of Columbia Government (hereinafter referred to as the “District” or “Employer”) hereby recognizes as the sole and exclusive representative for the purpose of collective bargaining, the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, AFL-CIO, District of Columbia District Council 20, and its affiliated Local Unions (hereinafter referred to collectively as the “Union” or “AFSCME”) for each of the bargaining units under the personnel authority of the Mayor for which AFSCME is the certified collective bargaining representative.

Section 2 - Bargaining Units Descriptions:

This Agreement may also include agencies with independent personnel authority if they have executed an addendum opting to be covered by the provisions herein.

Section 3 - Coverage:

AFSCME, the certified exclusive representative of all employees in the bargaining unit referenced above, shall be responsible for representing the interests of employees in the units without discrimination as to membership; provided, however, that an employee who does not pay dues or service fees may be required by the Union to pay reasonable costs for personal representation.

Section 4 – New Units:

Bargaining units of employees under the administrative jurisdiction of the Mayor of the District of Columbia certified during the term of this Agreement shall be covered by the provisions of this Agreement, if agreed to by the parties.

Section 5 – Unit Clarification(s):

The Union and the Employer shall file a Joint Petition with the Public Employee Relations Board (hereinafter referenced as PERB) to clarify and correct inaccuracies contained on the current unit certifications. Prior to filing of the joint petition, the Union and Employer shall confer on the revised unit descriptions.

Before attempting to see an employee, the Steward will obtain permission from the employee's supervisor. Such permission will be granted unless the employee cannot be immediately relieved from his assigned duties, in which case permission will be granted as soon as possible thereafter. If the immediate supervisor is unavailable, permission will be requested from the next highest level of supervision. Requests by Stewards for permission to meet with employees and/or by employees to meet with Stewards will not require prior explanation to the supervisor of the problems involved other than to identify the area to be visited and the general purpose of the visit i.e., grievance investigation, labor-management meetings, negotiation sessions, etc.

A Steward thus engaged will report back to his/her supervisor on completion of such duties and return to their job. The employer agrees that there shall be no restraint, interference, coercion, or discrimination against a Steward in the performance of such duties.

Section 3 – Union Activities on Employer's Time and Premises:

- b. Adverse Actions: Removal, suspension for more than nine (9) days; or a reduction in rank or grade or pay for cause.

Section 3:

Discipline will be appropriate to the circumstances, and shall be primarily corrective, rather than punitive in nature. After discovery of the incident, the investigations shall be conducted in a timely manner and discipline shall be imposed upon the conclusion of any investigation or the gathering of any required documents, consistent with the principle of progressive discipline and D.C. Office of Personnel regulations.

Section 4:

If a supervisor has reason to discipline an employee, it shall be done in a manner that will not embarrass the employee before other employees or the public.

Section 5:

Unless there is a reasonable cause to believe that an employee's conduct is an immediate hazard to the agency, the employee or other employees, or is detrimental to public health, safety or welfare, an employee against whom adverse action is proposed shall be entitled to at least thirty (30) days advance written notice of proposed adverse action (or fifteen (15) days if corrective action is proposed). The notice will identify the causes and the reasons for the proposed action.

Section 6:

Recognizing that the Union is the exclusive representative of the employees in the bargaining unit, the Department shall in good faith attempt to notify the Union of proposed disciplinary actions. Each Department shall notify the union of the method of notification. Further the Employer agrees

The material upon which the proposed discipline is based shall be made available to the employee and his/her authorized representatives for review. The employee or his/her authorized representative will be entitled to receive a copy of the material upon written request.

Section 7:

Except in the special circumstances referred to in Section 5 above, an employee shall be entitled to at least ten (10) workdays to answer the notice of proposed corrective or adverse action. This opportunity to be heard shall be afforded by a person designated by the agency head. This person shall not be in the supervisory chain between the proposing and/or deciding official(s) and shall not be subordinate to the proposing official. This person shall review the employee's answer, discuss the proposed action with the employee and/or his representative and appropriate representatives of the Employer and make a recommendation to the deciding official who will act upon the recommendation, as he/she deems proper.

Section 8:

The person proposing a disciplinary action shall not be the deciding official unless the proposing official is the agency head or Director of Personnel.

Section 9:

Except in the special circumstances referred to in Section 5 above, an employee against whom a corrective or adverse action has been proposed shall be kept in an active duty status during the notice period.

The forty-five (45) day period for issuing a final decision may be extended by agreement of the employee and the deciding official. If the proposed action is sustained in whole or in part, the written decision shall identify which causes have been sustained and which have been dismissed, describe whether the proposed penalty has been sustained or reduced and inform the employee of his or her right to appeal or grieve the decision, and the right to be represented. The final decision shall also specify the effective date of this action.

Section 11:

In any circumstance in which the Employer has reasonable cause to believe that an employee's conduct is an immediate hazard to the employing agency, to the employee involved or other employees, or is detrimental to public health, safety or welfare the Employer may place an employee on administrative leave whether or not notice of proposed action has been given to the employee.

Section 12:

Notice of final decision, dated and signed by the deciding official, shall be delivered to the employee on or before the time the action is effective. If the employee is not in a duty status at that time, the notice shall be sent to the employee's last known address by certified or registered mail.

Section 13:

Except as provided in Section 14 of this Article, employees may grieve actions through the negotiated grievance procedure, or appeal to the Office of Employee Appeals (OEA) in accordance with OEA regulations but not both. Once the employee has selected the review procedure, that choice shall be the exclusive method of review.

Section 14:

The removal of an employee during his or her probationary period is neither grievable nor appealable and shall be done in accordance with the DPM.

Section 15:

If a final decision is grieved through the negotiated grievance procedure a written grievance shall be filed with the deciding official within fifteen (15) workdays after the effective date of the action.

Upon such request, the supervisor will stop the questioning until the employee can consult with such representative, but in no event will such questioning be

The applicable rate of pay will be determined by application of D.C. government procedures concerning grade and step placement for temporary promotions, and will be effective the first pay period beginning after the qualifying period has passed. An employee on detail to a lower graded position shall maintain the pay for his/her original position. Advance notice will be given to the Union of any detail exceeding one pay period.

ARTICLE 16

ADMINISTRATION OF LEAVE

Section 1 – General:

Employees shall be eligible to use leave in accordance with the personnel rules and regulations. Any request for a leave of absence shall be submitted in writing by the employee to his/her immediate supervisor. The request shall state the length of time off the employee desires, the type of leave requested and the reason for the request. An excused absence is an absence from duty without loss of pay and without charge to leave when such absence is authorized by statute or administrative discretion.

Section 2 - Annual Leave:

A. Normal Requests for Leave: A request for a short leave of absence, not to exceed three days, shall be requested in writing on the proper form and answered before the end of the work shift in which the request is submitted. A request for a leave of absence between four to seven days must be submitted five (5) calendar days in advance and answered within five days, except for scheduled vacations, as provided for in Section 2 of this Article. If the request is disapproved, the supervisor shall return the SF-71 with reasons for the disapproval indicated. Requests for annual leave shall not be unreasonably denied.

B. Emergency Requests: Any employee's request for immediate leave due to family death or sickness shall be granted or denied immediately.

C. Carryover: Annual leave, which is not used, may be accumulated from year to year. In general, the maximum allowable leave is thirty (30) days, unless the employee had a greater amount of allowable leave at the beginning of the leave year. Employees shall receive a lump sum leave payment for all accrued annual leave not used at the time of retirement, resignation or other separation from the employer, consistent with the negotiated Compensation Agreement.

D. Vacation Schedules: Every effort will be made to grant employees leave during the time requested. If the operations would suffer by scheduling all requests during a given period of time, a schedule will be worked out with all conflicts to be resolved by the application of seniority. After vacations are posted, no changes shall be made unless mutually agreeable or an emergency arises. Employees will be encouraged to schedule vacations through the year.

Section 3 - Sick Leave:

A. Requests:

1. Supervisors shall approve sick leave of employees incapacitated from the performance of their duties. Employees shall request sick leave as far in advance as possible prior to the start of their regular tour of duty on the first day of absence.

2. Sick leave shall be requested and approved in advance for visits to and/or appointments with doctors, dentists, practitioners, opticians, and chiropractors for the purpose of securing diagnostic examinations, treatments and x-rays.

3. Employees shall not be required to furnish a doctor's certificate to substantiate requests for approval of sick leave unless such sick leave exceeds three work days continuous duration. However, if Management has given written notice to an employee that there is a good reason to believe that the employee has abused sick leave privileges, then the employee must furnish a doctor's certificate for each absence from work, which is claimed as sick leave regardless of its duration. The Union will encourage employees to conserve sick leave for use during periods of extended illness.

4. Advance sick leave requests will be given prompt consideration by the Employer consistent with Section 3(b) of this Article when the following provisions are met:

(a) The request must be submitted in writing and must be supported by acceptable medical certificates.

(b) All available accumulated sick leave to the employee's credit must be exhausted. The employee must use annual leave he/she might otherwise forfeit.

(c) In the case of employees serving under temporary appointments, or under probationary or trial periods, advance sick leave should not exceed an amount which is reasonably assured will be subsequently earned during such period.

(d) The amount of sick leave advanced to an employee's account will not exceed 240 hours at any time. Where it is known that the employee is to be separated, the total sick leave advanced may not exceed an amount which can be liquidated by subsequent accrual prior to the separation.

(e) There must be a reasonable assurance that the employee will return to duty.

B. Advance Sick Leave: Advance sick leave may be granted to permanent or probationary employees in amounts not to exceed 240 hours. Furthermore, an employee may not be indebted for more than 240 hours of sick leave at any one time. Sick leave may be advanced to employees holding a limited appointment or one expiring on a specific date, but not in excess of the total sick leave that would accrue during the remaining period of such appointment. In either case the employee request must be supported by a statement from his/her physician attesting that the employee has a serious disability or ailment and is incapacitated for duty and stating the period of time expected to be involved. The request should be denied only if the requirements of Section 3 (a) and (b) are not met or there is a reason to believe that the employee will not return to duty or that he/she has abused the sick leave privilege in the past.

C. All accrued and accumulated sick leave must be exhausted before the advance sick leave is credited. Accrued and accumulated annual leave may remain standing to the credit of employees. The Employer will use its best efforts to answer an employee's request for advanced sick leave within fifteen (15) working days. However, an employee is responsible for applying advance sick leave in writing as far in advance as possible. If the request is denied, the reasons for such denial shall be given in writing. Further, the employee will be given consideration for LWOP consistent with the provisions of personnel rules and regulations.

Section 4 – Other Paid Leave:

A. Military Leave: Full-time employees are entitled to leave as reserve members of the armed forces or as members of the National Guard to the extent provided in D.C. Official Code Section 1-612.03(m) and applicable rules and regulations and the Compensation Units 1 & 2 Agreement, which provide in part the following:

Leave for voting will be allowed in accordance with the personnel rules and regulations.

D. Funeral Leave: Funeral leave shall be granted in accordance with the Compensation Units 1 & 2 Agreement.

E. Civic Duty: Upon advance request and adequate justification employees required to appear before a court or other public body on public business in which they are not personally involved shall be granted leave of absence with pay unless paid leave is prohibited by Federal or District Regulations or Statutes.

An employee shall also be excused without charge to leave for the purpose of taking an examination whenever, in the judgment of the Department or agency head, the District Government will benefit thereby. Absence from duty in order to take an examination primarily for the employee's own benefit and not connected to the District Government must be requested in accordance with the general leave provisions.

Section 5 - Leave Without Pay:

A. General: Leave of absence without pay for a limited period may be granted at the supervisor's discretion for a reasonable purpose if requested in advance in writing.

B. Union: Employees elected to any Union office or selected by the Union to do work which takes them from their employment with the Employer shall at the written request of the employee and the Union be granted a leave of absence without pay; provided the written request states the purpose and duration of the absence, and is submitted thirty (30) calendar days in advance of the commencement of the desired period of absence. If the Employer indicates that the requested leave will unduly hamper its operations, it may offer an alternative for consideration by the Union.

C. The initial leave of absence shall not exceed one (1) year. Leaves of absence for Union officials may be extended for similar periods. No more than one employee from a bargaining unit shall be on such extended leave at the same time.

D. Parenthood Leave: Maternity leave before and following childbirth shall be granted at the request of the employee. The employee is obligated to advise her supervisor substantially in advance of the anticipated leave date. This period of absence shall be determined by the employee, her physician and her supervisor. Maternity leave is chargeable to sick leave or any combination of sick leave, annual leave, or leave without pay. Paternity leave may be granted for a period of up to two (2) weeks following childbirth, and may be extended at the supervisor's discretion. Such leave shall be a combination of annual leave or leave without pay.

The period of leave of absence may not exceed one (1) year, but may be extended at the discretion of the Employer. If an employee is returning from educational leave during which he/she has acquired the qualification of a higher rated position he/she shall not have lost any of his/her rights in being evaluated for the higher graded position.

Section 2:

If an employee's paycheck is delayed, the employee shall immediately notify his/her supervisor. The supervisor shall initiate efforts through the agency controller to obtain a supplemental payment. ARTICLE 22 GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

Section 1:

Any grievance or dispute which may arise between the parties involving the application, meaning or interpretation of this Agreement, shall be settled as described in this Article unless otherwise agreed to by the parties.

Section 2 - Procedure:

This procedure is designed to enable the parties to settle grievances at the lowest possible administrative level. Therefore, grievances should be filed at the lowest level where resolution is possible. Accordingly, a grievance may be filed at the Step in the grievance procedure where the alleged action, which precipitated the grievance, occurred.

Step 1: The employee and/or the Union shall take up the grievance or dispute with the employee's immediate supervisor as soon as is practicable, but no later than fifteen (15) working days from the date of the occurrence or when the Union and/or the employee first had knowledge of or should have known of the occurrence. B. Both the Employer and the Union may strike three (3) names from the list using the alternate strike method. The party requesting arbitration shall strike the first name. The arbitration hearing shall be conducted pursuant to the American Arbitration Association guidelines unless modified by this Agreement.

Section 6 - Decision of the Arbitrator:

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on the parties and shall not be inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement. The arbitrator shall be requested to render his/her decision in writing within thirty (30) days after the conclusion of the arbitration hearing.

Expenses for the arbitrator's services and the proceeding shall be borne equally by the Employer and the Union. Therefore, on an experimental basis and when mutually agreed to by the parties, a mediator may be selected and utilized to facilitate settlements. The mediator may not impose a settlement on the parties, and any settlement reached will not be precedential unless otherwise agreed to by the parties on a case-by-case basis.

B. Grievances may be combined for the purpose of mediation upon mutual agreement by the parties.
